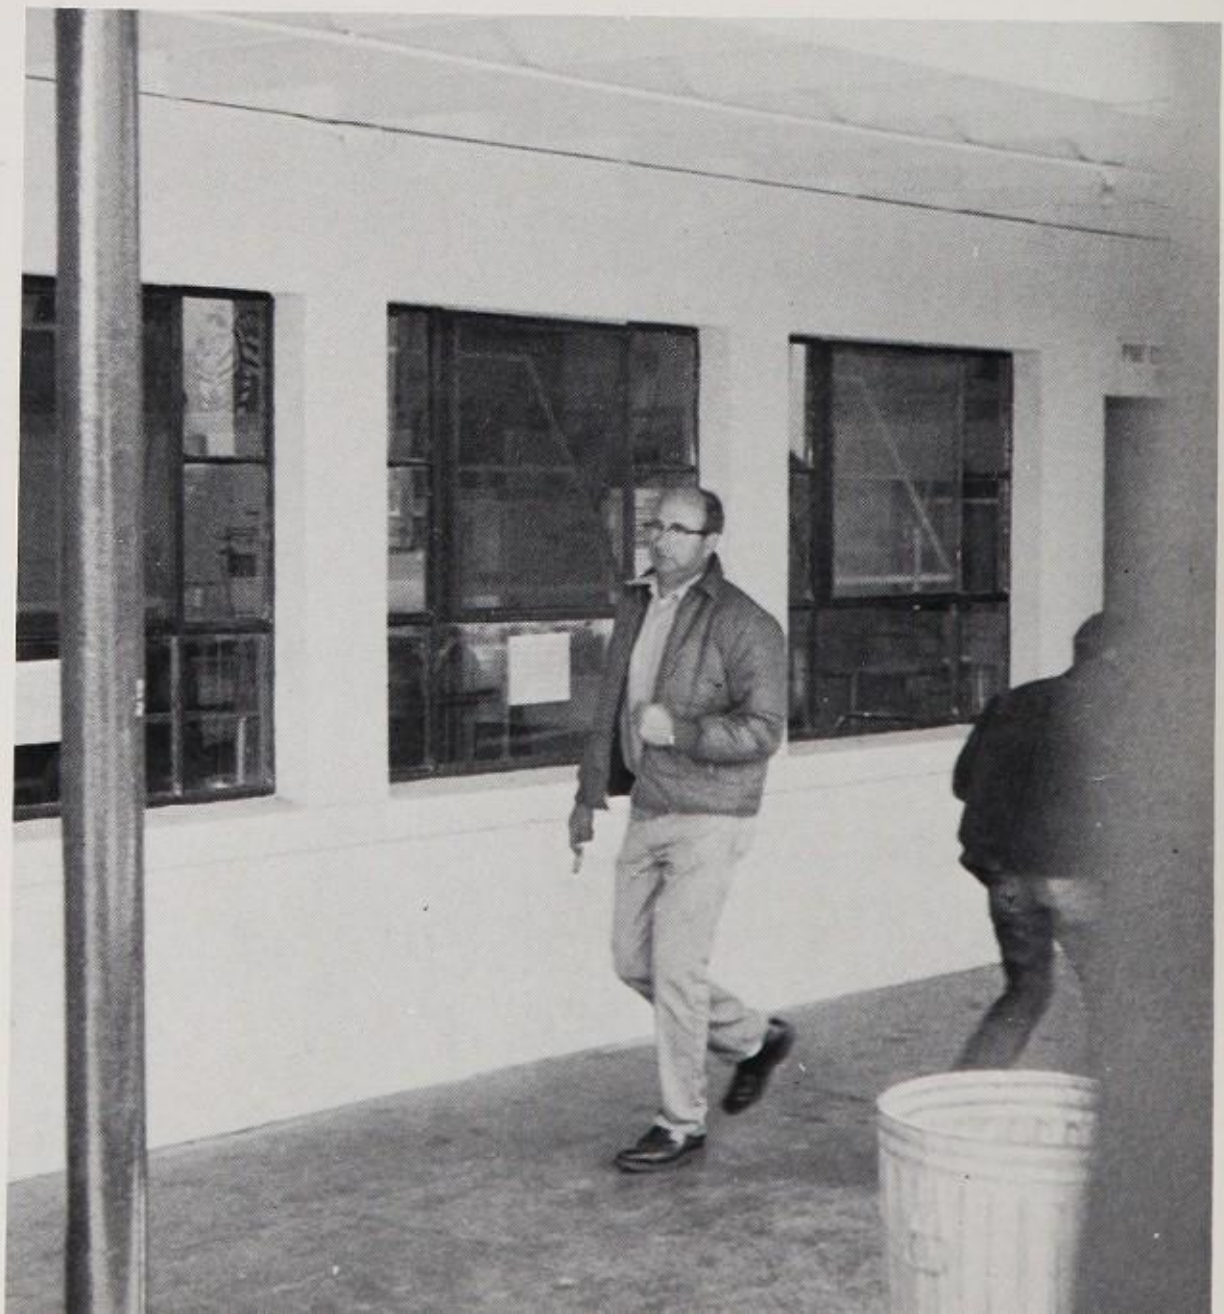
Dedication

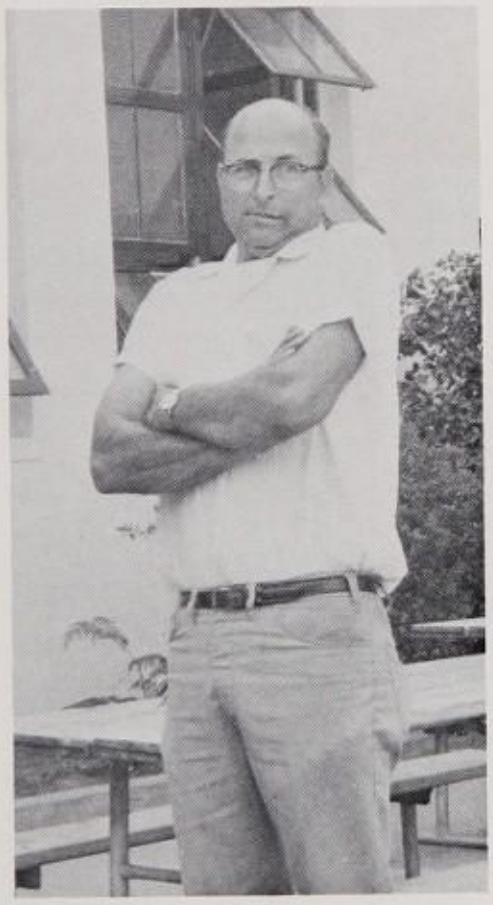
Chris Garcia



THE STUDENT BODY OF WASHINGTON HIGH SCHOOL WISH TO DEDICATE THE NINETEEN HUNDRED AND SEVENTY–TWO WASHINGTONIAN TO MR. CHRIS GARCIA.

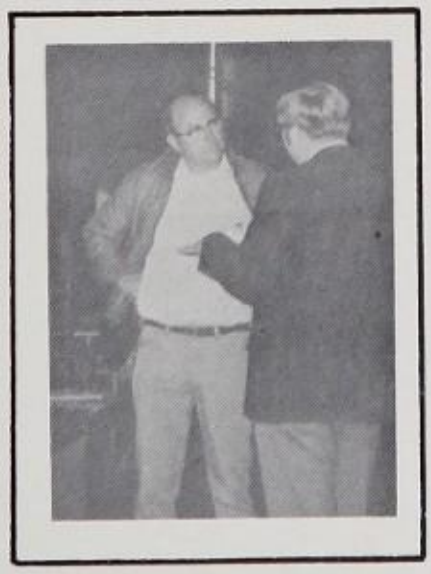
It has been asked of Chris to shoulder many burdens, and it has been done.

More than likely however, we see the man like this:



Our dedicated man about school is human. More than once he has shown anger.

If things need cleaning, Chris will make a clean sweep of it.



Willing to listen to problems.

Chris helps everyone, and takes it all in stride.

LIKED BY HIS FELLOWS, UNDERSTOOD BY THE STUDENTS, RESPECTED BY ALL. THANK–YOU MR. GARCIA.

There is no wrong side or right side
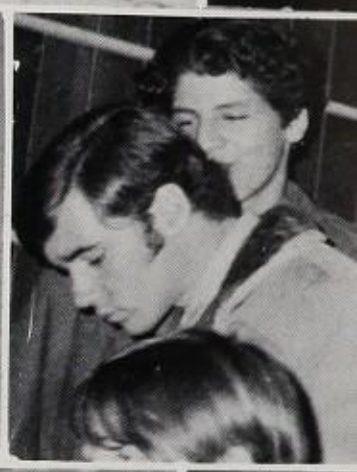
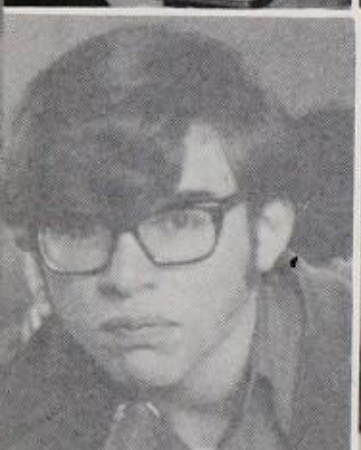
No misery in not being loved
Only in not loving
I learned these truths, myself
So tell them to you now
As you go sailing through the sun
On your way toward life.

ROD MCKUEN





"Look to this day for it is life
the very life of life.
In its brief course lie all the verities
and realities of your existance.
The Bliss of Growth
The Splendor of Beauty
The Glory of Action
For yesterday is but a dream,
and tomorrow is only a vision
But today well-lived makes every yesterday a dream of happiness
And every tomorrow a vision of hope
Look well, therefore, to this day."

The story opens in 1862, when Anna, an attractive English school teacher, arrive by boat in Bangkok, Siam. She is to become the governess of the King's children.

She is promptly awed by the splendor of the palace and by the unpredictable and dynamic king. Anna in effect becomes his diplomatic advisor.

The King is introduced to Tup ıım. (Paula Polione)

Lady Tiang (Mary Brady) confers with the King (John Deering)

Tup Tim, a lovely Burmese girl, who has been given to the King as a present. She longs for her true love Lun Tha (Paul Cohen).

The King's wives are impressed with western styles.

The King is being taught to dance in western fashion.

Due to the demands of the role of Anna, the Directors felt it neccessary to doublecast the part.

The King is with Prince Chululonghorn, heir to the throne.

Anna and the royal children.

The King's wives are preparing for the banquet with many diplomats invited.

The Kralahome is being advised on domestic affairs.

Tup Tim and Lun Tha in their parting moments before their tragic fate.

One of the royal dancers.

THE CREW

At The King and I rehearsals, loyalty and tolerance was most important.

As the weeks zoomed by, the hard work, soreness, and exhaustion melted into the expectations and thoughts of each cast member.

Perfection on opening night was not demanded but expected.

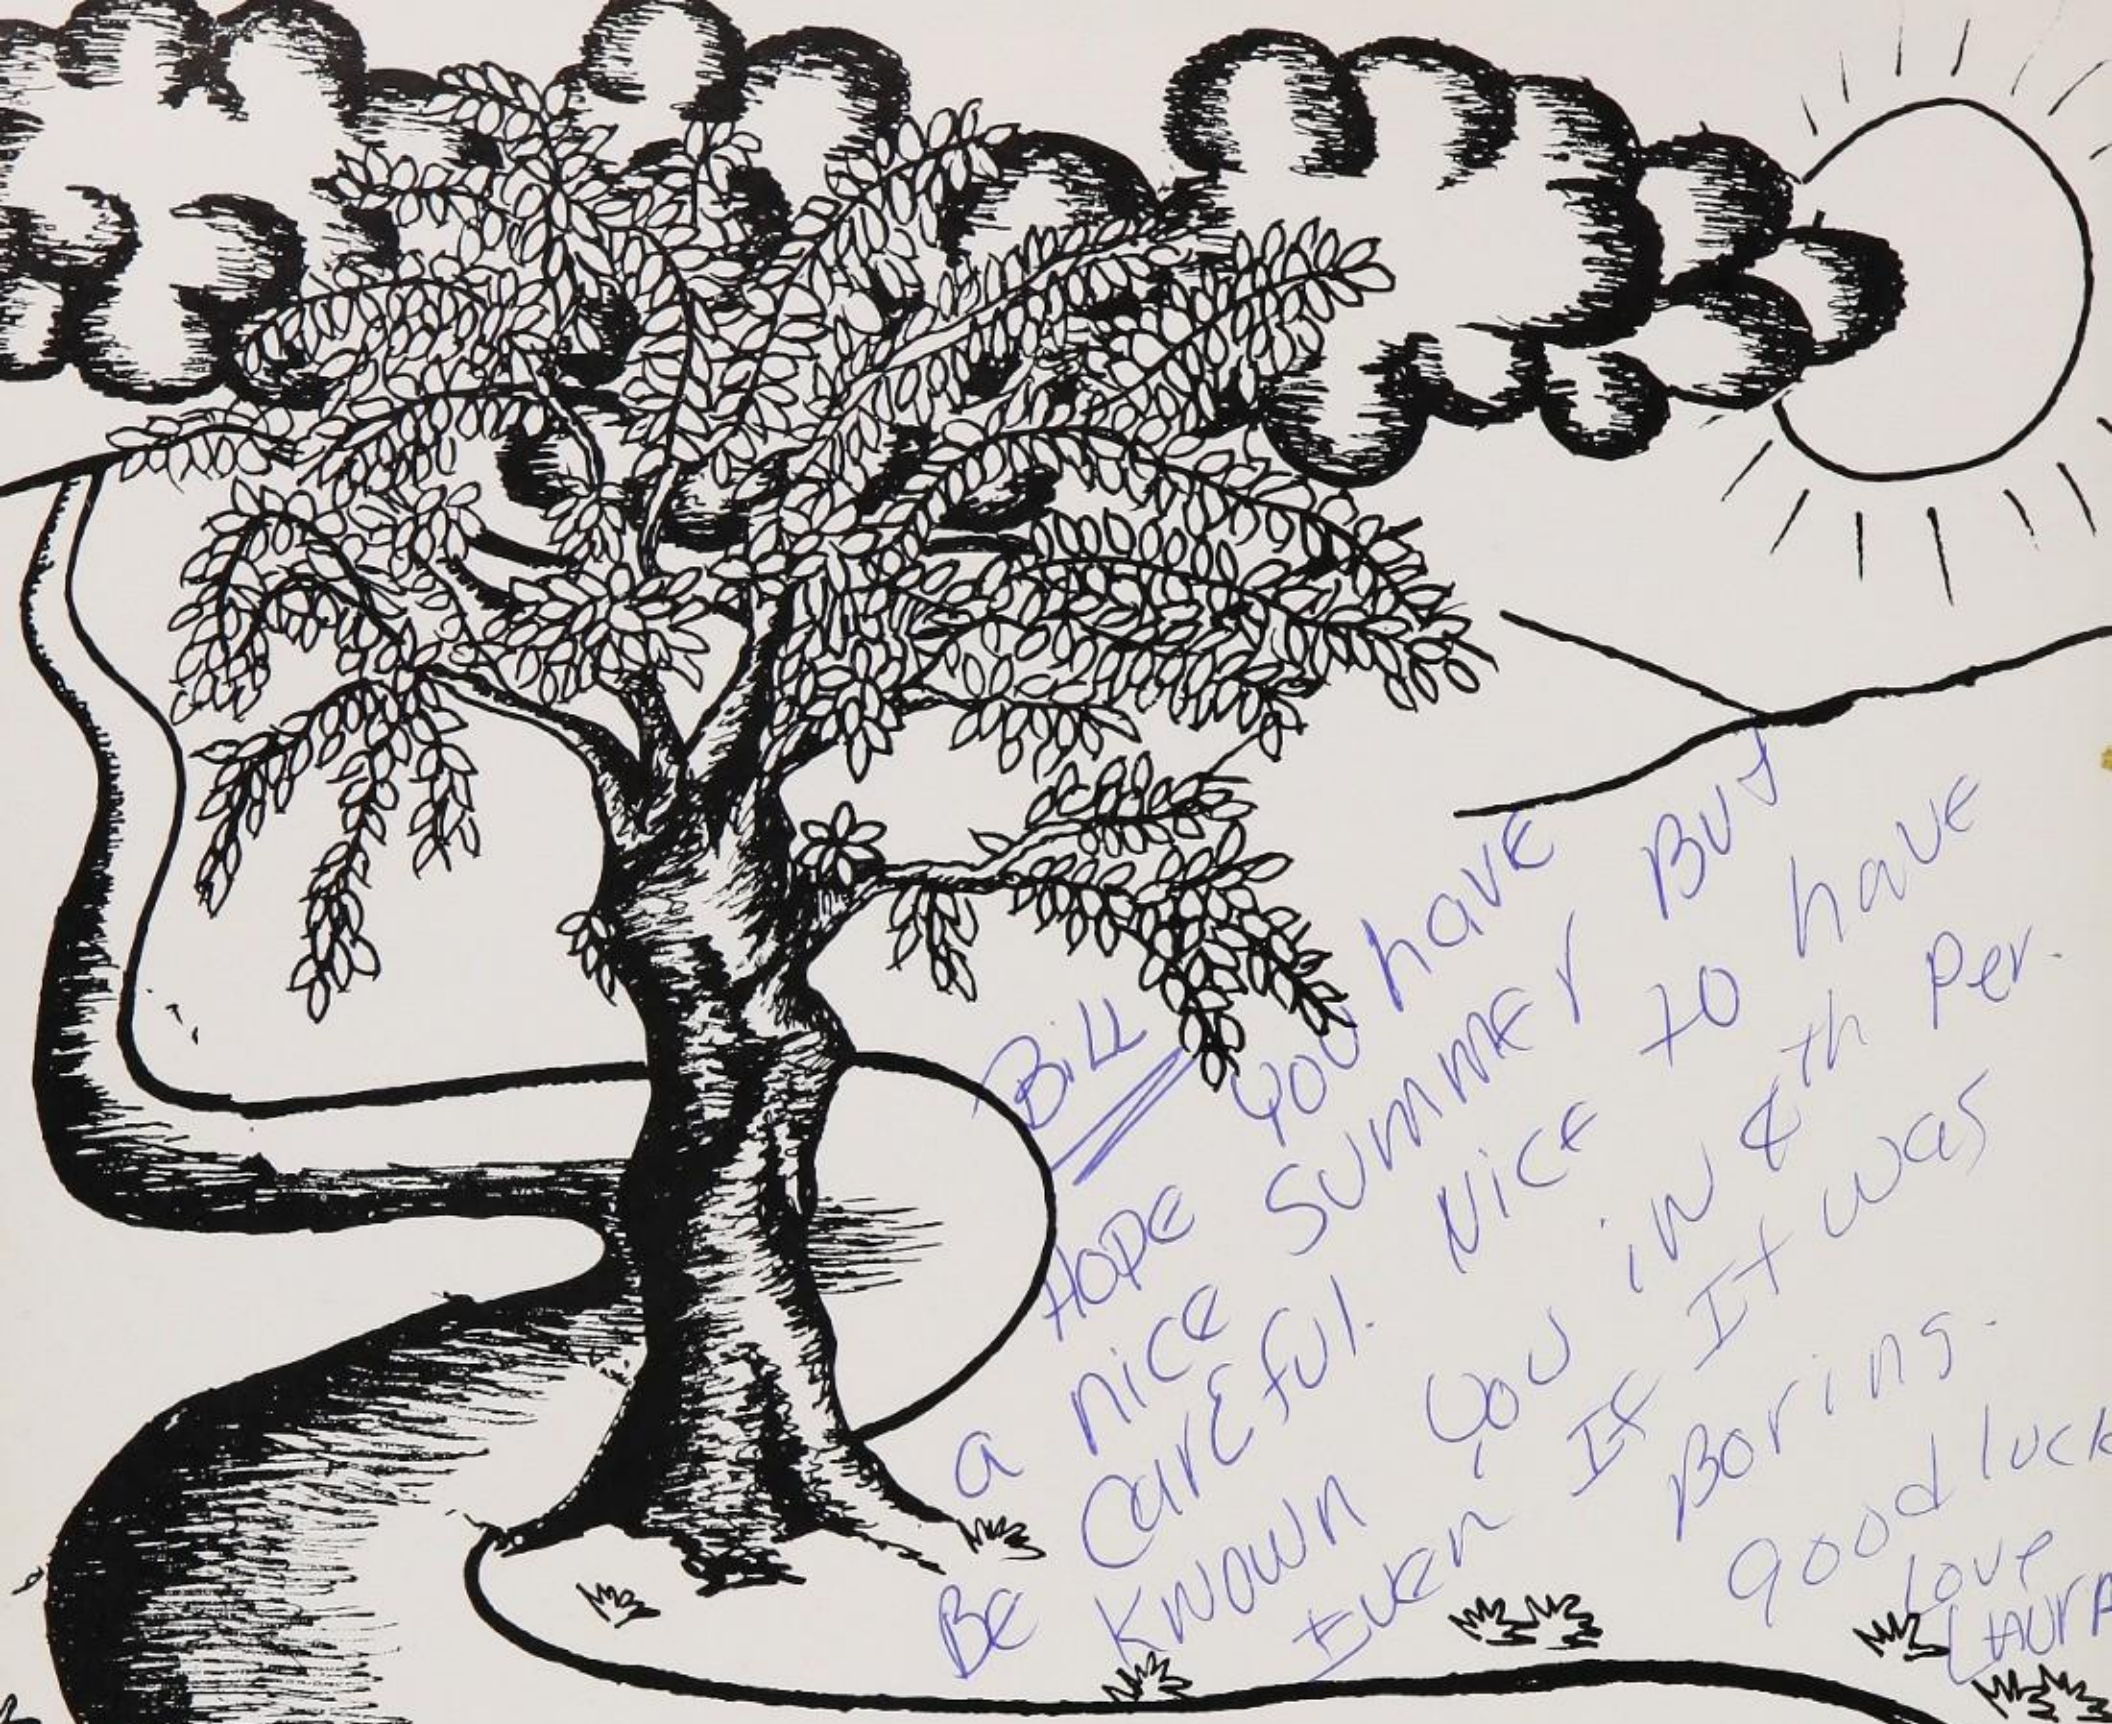
FRESHMEN TRACK



Sometimes we walk along a path
Beneath a cloudy sky
There's nothing to the left or right
To lift our spirits high
Then, at last, we turn a corner
And there, bursts into our view
A scene of light and beauty
And the whole world seems fresh and new.

So always hold a little thought
That cares are bound to end
And there's a brighter day ahead
Just waiting 'round the bend.
